

Jersey Independent and Daily Telegraph Friday 25 December 1857

Copper Money.

The trading community will learn with pleasure that the new issue of local copper money ordered by the States, and sanctioned by the Privy Council, will not be long before it is put into circulation. A letter recently received from London states they are at work striking the copper money at the Mint.