

Jersey Independent and Daily Telegraph - Monday 23 May 1859

False Coins.

Sovereigns and half sovereigns have been put in circulation within the last few days. The imitation is good, but they can easily be recognised by the sound, and likewise being lighter than the genuine coin. There are too many bad sovereigns on the Continent; we can very well do without them here.