

Jersey Independent and Daily Telegraph Wednesday 31 August 1859

Jersey Copper.

— We understand that in consequence of the island having been recently inundated with the copper coins of Jersey, which are of a smaller intrinsic value than those of Guernsey, our Banks and the Treasurer of the Slatcs refuse to receive them in payment. — Star.