

London Evening Standard - Thursday 24 August 1871

THE CHANNEL ISLANDS EXHIBITION.

(By Telegraph.) JERSEY, August 23.

The final proceedings in connection with the Channel Islands Exhibition, namely, the distribution of medals to the successful exhibitors, took place today, having been postponed in consequence of delay in the preparation of the medals. A grand concert by 160 performers formed part of the proceedings, intermingled with the reading of the committees' reports. His Excellency Major General Guy, Lieut. Governor of Jersey, in conjunction with Mr. John Hammond, bailiff for the island, distributed the medals to the successful exhibitors.