

Manchester Evening News - Saturday 26 February 1876

The Evening News

The Jersey States have passed a bill for withdrawing the present copper coinage of thirteen pence to the shilling, and making fresh issue based on the English system. It is intended to retain the existing style of coin bearing the Jersey arms on one existing side and the image of Her Majesty on the other.