

Birmingham Daily Post - Monday 28 February 1876

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Jersey States have resolved upon a sensible reform in abolishing the present absurd and puzzling copper coinage of thirteen pence to the shilling, and substituting a fresh issue, based on the English system. It is intended to retain the present style of coin, bearing the Jersey Arms on one side and the image of Her Majesty on the other.