

Western Morning News - Monday 06 November 1876

News

The great scarcity of copper money at Jersey is very seriously inconveniencing tradespeople. The difficulty is increased by the steady refusal of some shopkeepers to accept French or Guernsey copper coins, which hitherto have had equal currency with Jersey and English coppers.