

Jersey Independent and Daily Telegraph Saturday 24 March 1877

Old Copper Currency.

According to the official notice this is the last week appointed by the Treasurer of the States for the exchange of old copper coin for new. Next week in all probability new arrangements will be made; but it would be well for these possessed of old coin to take it to the Treasurer of the States tomorrow. We understand that an amount of old coin amounting to over £150 has been sent in this week from Guernsey.