

OLD COPPER COIN.

Although it is some time since the old copper coin was called in, the Treasurer of the States found that there was still some quantity in the hands the public, in consequence of which he issued another notice requesting that it might be handed in. This has been done, and last week quantity weighing 3 tons 1 cwt., valued about £1,100, was sent out of the Island by the Treasurer.